Campaign & Film Title: "Djetinstvo nije izbor nego pravo!" (Childhood is not a choice but a right!)

Sarajevo

Oct 2019 — Feb 2021

Secured second place in "Raising my voice for my right" competition with short film "Djetinstvo nije izbor nego pravo!" (Childhood is not a choice but a right!), addressing violation of children rights. Film success prompted organization of conference with speakers from "Hope and Homes for Children", UNICEF BiH and many others. My responsibilities were:

- Acted as the main organizer of the conference, overseeing logistics, scheduling, and coordination of speakers and participants.
- Wrote and directed the short film, responsible for conceptualizing the storyline and directing the production process.
- Designed promotional materials including posters, invitations, and social media assets to generate awareness and interest in the conference.
- Created and implemented a cohesive branding strategy for the event, including the development of a logo, tagline, and other visual elements.
- Assisted with editing of the short film, contributing to post-production processes and finalizing the content.

Humanity in Action-Game Changers

Sarajevo

Mar 2022 — Jun 2022

Implemented innovative educational project utilizing board games to engage youth in Bosnia and Herzegovina, focusing on gender equality and women's empowerment within civic engagement and public policy domains

- Collaborated with team members to design and create an engaging board game centered on gender equality and empowerment.
- Organized promotional events in schools and other venues to raise awareness about the game and its educational objectives.
- Played a key role in facilitating workshops and activities aimed at teaching young people about gender equality and civic engagement through gameplay.
